Sleep Well---Work Well.

Ever realize how much your day's work depends upon the mattress that holds you over night. Pays to give a little thought to this mattress question; doesn't it? We find it so—find we can't afford to experiment with cheap mattress makers, hair might not be what it ought to be. You'd find it out sometime, then we'd be the losers.

OUR HAIR MATTRESSES

Come direct from the maker to you—direct from the man who was paid several thousand dollars more than the lowest bidder to mattress the Waldorf-Astoria, because of his name for honesty and quality. We carry no stock of these, strange? Not at all. We prefer to deliver a perfectly fresh mattress to each customer, rather than one that has been in our storehouse a week or ten days, and the wait is but 24 hours.

You'll sleep well a great many years on one of our hair mattresses, because it's just what it ought to be —fine hair, properly made and clean.

FIRE DEVASTATES ASIA MINOR TOWN.

Mosque, 400 Shops and 60 Houses Destroyed.

Population in Distress and a Relief Fund Started.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.—A conflagration has devastated the town of Armenak in the vilayet of Adana, Asia Minor. The mosque the other public buildings, 400 shops and 60 houses were destroyed. The population is in the greatest distress, and a relief fund has been started.

SHOCK FELT NEAR NAPLES.

Earthquake Does Not Destroy Two Towns on Island of Sicily.

ROME, Aug. 3.—The report published in America that an earthquake had occurred in the island of Sicily, and that two towns had been destroyed is quite unfounded. The last shock of earthquake occurred on the mainland Saturday, being felt especially in the province of Benevento, near Naples, but no damage was done.

SHOCK LASTED 45 SECONDS.

Earthquake Felt in San Francisco, But No Damage Reported.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 3.—An earthquake lasting nearly 30 seconds was experienced here yesterday afternoon. The earthquake was of the longest duration in many years, but it was not of a violent character and no damage has been reported. Stanford University reports that the shock lasted for 45 seconds.

Fish Market Burned.

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, Aug. 3.—A. N. Whitmen & Co., fish merchants and general dealers, at Canso, were burned out this morning, only the ice house and cold storage buildings being saved. There were 15 wooden buildings in the group. Insurance on the buildings and stock is about $30,000.

METEOR AND VALDORA WIN.

Solent Yachting Season Opens Under Auspices of London Royal Club.

COWES, Aug. 3.—The Solent yachting season, which opened this morning with matches under the auspices of the Royal London Yacht Club, promises to be more than usually interesting. The presence of King Edward and Queen Alexandra guarantees the social success of the week, while the entries for the races will be up to the average.

The fleet of pleasure yachts at Cowes includes many large steamers, but H. J. Drexel's Margarita dwarfs all, with the exception of the royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The other American yachts are Allison Armour's Ulowana and Mrs. Robert Goelet's Nahma, while among the racers the German emperor's yacht Meteor, and Herr Watjen's Navahoe represent American yacht building yards.

A smart westerly breeze was blowing when the fleet of cruisers started on a 30-mile course for a cup worth 60 guineas, presented by the vice commodore of the club. There were five entries. The gaff of Sir James Henderson's yawl Brynhild snapped just before she crossed the line, while immediately after the Therese carried away her bowsprit, leaving Mr. Eckford's Nunuare, Mr. Donaldson's Bona and Mr. Kerr's Valdora to compete for the prize.

The race for the rear commodore's cup, value 110 guineas, brought out three schooners. The German emperor's Meteor led over the line, with Mr. Quentin's Cicely on her weather beam and Mr. Cayley's Adela close astern. In the course of the first round the Cicely carried away her gaff, and the Meteor led to the end of the round with her handicap well in hand. A number of other minor handicap races started.

The King landed at Cowes this morning and visited the Duchess of Manchester, who, with her sister, Emily Yznaga, and Hon. and Mrs. George Keppel are among the guests of M. Poklewski at the Egypt House.

The Meteor and the Valdora won their respective races.

STILL NO RESULT FROM BALLOTING.

Waiting Crowd Outside St. Peter's Twice Disappointed Today.

Guards Around the Precincts of the Conclave Doubled to Ensure Secrecy.

ROME, Aug. 3.—Today's first ballot for Pope has been taken and apparently resulted in no election. Smoke was observed issuing from the Sistine Chapel chimney at 10 minutes after 11 o'clock this morning, indicating the burning of the ballots.

Though it is the third morning of the cardinals' imprisonment they have not yet arrived at a decision. In the hope that over night some agreement might have been arranged, the foreign ministers, many other personages and 2,000 or 3,000 of the general public went to St. Peter's this morning to await the developments. They were doomed to another disappointment, for at 11:15 o'clock the smoke announcing that the fifth ballot had been fruitless rose from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel. The crowd immediately left the piazza, many expressing regret at the failure of the ballot. There is a popular feeling that this afternoon's ballot may bring the new Pope, but this does not appear to be based on any particular reason.

The correspondent of the Associated Press visited the inside of the Vatican this morning and found that all around the precincts of the conclave guards had been doubled, and whenever there is the slightest communication with the conclave the Swiss guards, gendarmes and Palatine guards watch together. The antagonism existing between these bodies is the best guarantee that nothing underhand will be allowed. Besides, the captains of the conclave, in their cocked hats and uniforms, embroidered with gold lace, assisted by the valets of Prince Chigi, the marshal of the conclave, in gorgeous liveries, are constantly on the qui vive. The only thing known from inside is that the cardinals rose early today and individually celebrated mass in the Pauline chapel. They took breakfast at 9 o'clock, going shortly afterwards to the Sistine Chapel, where they remained until about 11:30.

The piazza of St. Peter's this morning bore the usual appearance of the past few days. Italian soldiers occupied two colonnades and stood about in groups, vainly trying to keep in the shade, the sun being scorching hot this morning. A new note to the scene was given by a caravan of peasants from the surrounding province, composed of men, women and children in costume, who have evidently come to Rome for the Pope's blessing, dressed in their best. The women wore bright red skirts, white bodices, with colored corsos outside, spotless white handkerchiefs on their heads, and sandals laced with leather thongs to the knees. The men were less gorgeous, in velvet knee breeches, with gold buttons. The group camped in the shadow of the obelisk, making so brilliant a picture that all on the piazza, especially the foreigners, feasted their eyes on the scene.

The sixth ballot was held this afternoon and proved fruitless. The smoke announcing that fact was seen rising from the Sistine Chapel at 6:25 p. m.

According to a reliable report from inside the conclave, but one which it is impossible to verify, Cardinal Herrero y Espinosa grew worse to such a point that the last sacraments were administered to him. The news leaked out by those outside hearing through the wicket a procession and the recital of prayers, as the communion was being taken to the sick cardinal.

It is stated that, on the request of Cardinal Herrero himself, the vicar general of his archdiocese of Valencia, Spain, who accompanied the cardinal to Rome, was allowed to enter the conclave and visit him. The cardinal is affected with heart disease. It is reported that artificial respiration is being resorted to.

FOR THE IRISH LAND BILL.

Duke of Devonshire Moves Second Reading in House of Lords.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Duke of Devonshire moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Lords today. He used the same arguments in favor of the necessity for passing the masure as were previously uttered by George Wyndham, the Irish secretary, in the House of Commons. The duke declared that the government is confident that the expenditure of the $60,000,000, provided in the bill will be fully compensated for by economies in the judical machinery and the reduction in the police expenses, which the adoption of the measure will render possible.

In conclusion the speaker declared that the House of Lords could not subsequently alter the bill as adopted by the House of Commons without serious risk of losing it altogether. The bill is in the nature of a treaty or instrument of peace, and although it would be rash to predict that it would prove a final settlement of the Irish question, any serious alteration would release the contracting parties from the obligations mutually undertaken. Never before, he said, had the representatives of the various interest concerned asked Parliament to sanction a settlement, the main principles of which they had themselves suggested.

LATEST NAVAL NEWS.

The Glavier has been put out of commission.

Rear Admiral A. S. Barker, commanding the combined fleet at Frenchman's Bay, has transferred his flag from the Illinois to the Kearsarge.

Lord.

ENTERTAINED BY ADMIRAL COTTON.

Members of the Portuguese Cabinet and Others Visit the Brooklyn.

LISBON, Aug. 3.—The Marquis of Alvito, the king's chamberlain, has invited Rear Admiral Cotton and United States Minister Bryan to spend Thursday at his chateau at Alvito.

Shortly after noon today the members of the Portuguese cabinet and the military and civil authorities here proceeded in naval barges across the harbor to the Brooklyn, Admiral Cotton's flagship, on board of which an exquisite menu had been prepared for the luncheon to be given in their honor. Rear Admiral Cotton and United States Minister Bryan, with the chief officers of the American squadron, received the guests at the gangway. The band of the Brooklyn played Portuguese airs, and the American warships flew the Portuguese flag at the mainmast.

President Roosevelt's cablegram in reply to the message from King Charles, which is published today by the Portuguese newspapers, has created an excellent impression here.

DRANK PRESIDENT'S HEALTH.

Roosevelt Cordially Reciprocates King of Portugal's Greeting.

OYSTER BAY, Long Island, Aug. 3.—In response to a message from the King of Portugal, announcing that he had had the pleasure of drinking to the President's health and to the prosperity of the American navy on board cruiser Brooklyn at Lisbon, President Roosevelt sent the following cablegram:

Oyster Bay, L. I., August 3, 1903.

His Majesty, the King of Portugal, Lisbon:

"I most cordially reciprocate Your Majesty's greeting, seeing in the friendly occasion which prompts it a renewed proof of the good will which unites the two countries and peoples.

"Theodore Roosevelt."

No visitors are expected at Sagamore Hill today. The President passed the day very quietly with his family.

TO CURTAIL PRODUCTION.

More Mills in Connecticut and New Hampshire to Close.

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—In addition to the list of mills which propose to stop part of the time during August as announced last week, the Hamilton cotton mills of Amesbury have decided to curtail production. The mills of the Russell Cotton Manufacturing Company at Middletown and Higganum, Conn., have closed for an indefinite time on account of the raw cotton situation.

The Nashua and Jackson companies of Nashua, N. H., will close their mills the last week of August and the first week in September. The Nashua mills are not short of raw material, but close to permit repairs, changes, etc. The extent of the curtailment in Fall River this week is about 750,000 spindles.

Monthly Cotton Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The monthly cotton report shows average condition to be 79.7, as compared with 77.1 June 25, 1903. The average condition July 25, 1902, was 81.9; July 25, 1901, 77.2, and 10-year average 84.3.

ABILENE, Kan., Aug. 3.—The Smoky Hill river has risen eight feet in the past 24 hours, and continues to rise.

GENERAL STRIKE IN SPAIN BEGINS.

Chief Object to Cause Release of Workmen.

Instigators Threatened With Severe Penalties.

MADRID, Aug. 3.—The threatened general strike commenced today in several centres, including Barcelona, Murcia, Cadiz, Ronda and Alcoy. The general unrest is largely attributed to bad harvests, but the immediate motive of the strike is to re-inforce the demand for the release of numerous workmen who have been thrown into prison for offences in connection with recent strikes. The leaders of the movement are exhorting the members of the trades unions not to return to work until all the imprisoned men have been released.

The government has taken stringent measures to cope with disturbances. The military forces and the civil guards have been re-inforced wherever necessary, and the troops have been confined to barracks. The instigators of the strike are threatened with severe penalties.

The residence of the mayor and a number of private houses at Alcala, province of Cadiz, have been attacked by strikers, who exchanged shots with the gendarmerie.

OVER 18,000 MEN OUT OF WORK.

Result of the Builders' League Lockout in Pittsburg, Pa.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 3.—As a result of the Builders' League lockout, 18,000 men were out of employment at noon today, and the officers of the league say that by evening the number will be increased to 24,000, or the total number of men affiliated with the Building Trades Council. The only men not affected by the lockout are the painters, paper hangers and decorators. Work has been stopped on almost all the buildings in course of erection in the city. Trouble is anticipated if the contractors bring in non-union men, and Police Superintendent McTighe is preparing to meet it.

FEW RETURN TO WORK.

New York Employers Attempt to Break Building Tie-Up.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Few if any of the 1,000 men who were to go to work today did so, although this was the day appointed by the employers to attempt to end the building tie-up caused by the refusal of the housesmiths and Bridgemen's Union to sign the employers' plan of arbitration.

"The time was so short," said Secretary Cheney of the Iron league, "to take action after we had heard of the refusal of the housesmiths to sign that it probably will be some days before we can get into working shape. There will have to be some weeding out of the many applications, but we know that among them are requests from many good workmen. We cannot say on what buildings work will be started first, for that would be a foolish policy."

The threat to call men from various buildings where they have been working has not yet been put into effect, but the contractors say they expect a call from Walking Delegate Parks for that purpose.

TWENTY-TWO INJURED.

Collision Between Freight and Passenger Trains at Hartford City, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 3.—A special to the News from Hartford City, Ind., says: A head-on collision at 2:40 this morning between a westbound Pan Handle freight and an east bound passenger injured 22. Some may die.

The more seriously injured: W. H. Mull, Logansport, leg cut and bruised.

George Ailsworth, Chicago, going to Ireland, leg crushed off below the knee.

M. L. Bain, leg shattered.

C. H. Frederick, Ridgeville, Ind., leg broken.

J. H. Watts, Chicago, leg cut and dislocated.

Christopher Gerhardt, Chicago, both legs crushed; hurt internally.

William J. Wells, Chicago, both legs crushed and side injured.

P. J. Garrett, Chicago, both legs broken.

George Rowe, Logansport, engineer of the freight, foot torn.

Ben Pabaors, Denver, on his way to Italy, leg bruised.

John R. Kling, Logansport, conductor, going to Bradford to take out the local, leg broken.

George Gallwein, Chicago, on his way to Boston, foot bruised and back sprained.

E. W. Synder, Logansport, foot crushed.

W. A. Rumell, Logansport, leg bruised.

Ephraim Whistler, Logansport, rural mail carrier, bruises.

Richard Harvey, Elmwood, on his way to Pittsburg, leg broken.

Six others were cut and bruised.

The freight train was delayed on the main track by a broken draw bar, and a fog prevented the passenger engineer from seeing a flag signal set ahead until too late. Both engines were reversed when they met, but the reversal was not made in time to check them to a material extent. The second baggage car telescoped the smoker, tearing through half its length and sweeping the people from its path. The shock threw many people from their seats. The passengers from the other cars rushed to the aid of those in the front of the smoker, but it was nearly an hour and a half after the accident that the last one was taken from the wreck.

CHALLENGER WELL AHEAD.

Shamrock III Sails Very Fast in an Eight-Mile Breeze.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Sir Thomas Lipton and party arrived at Jersey City at 8:30 o'clock today after a trip to Niagara Falls, and were taken directly on board the Erin in the harbor. The Erin left immediately for Sandy Hook, whence the Shamrocks were to be taken out for a trial.

At 8:50 both Shamrocks got under way and stood out to the Hook. The wind was blowing from the east, four miles an hour. The race was to be 15 miles to windward and return. The starting times were: Shamrock III, 11:12:17; Shamrock I, 11:12:37.

At 12:40 o'clock while on the port tack the Shamrock III stood close in towards Long Branch, where she was lost sight of. She then led the old boat by a good half mile, and was sailing very fast, the wind having increased to eight miles an hour.

Passing Long Branch at 1 o'clock the challenger was a mile ahead of the Shamrock I, and had beaten her by eight minutes. At 1:25 the Shamrock III was well in the lead, and was heading for the stake boat. The times of turning the outer mark were: Shamrock III, 1:59:15; Shamrock I, 2:05:32.

KAW RIVER FALLING.

Streets and Buildings in North Lawrence, Kan., Endangered by Rise.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Aug. 3.—The water in the Kaw river, which rose rapidly here yesterday, has fallen about a foot. The wash against the north bank of the Channel has caused much damage, and streets and buildings in North Lawrence have again been endangered by the constant caving in of the banks. The north approach to the bridge has been so badly undermined that crossing by wagons was impossible today.

THIRTY PERSONS KILLED.

Cars Heavily Loaded With Stones Run Into a Passenger Train.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—A despatch to the Volks Zeitung from Breslau reports a serious disaster on the railway between Sucha and Kalvaria, Austrian-Silesia. A train consisting of 11 cars, heavily loaded with stones, broke their couplings, and ran at a terrific speed down a sharp grade for 20 miles, and then collided with a passenger train. Thirty persons are said to have been killed, and 52 others severely injured.

RELIEF FUND $7,000.

$1,025 Contributed by Visitors to Scene of Lowell's Disaster Yesterday.

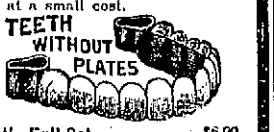

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 3.—The relief committee this afternoon announced that the money placed in the contribution boxes by persons who visited the scene of the powder magazine explosion of Wednesday at South Lowell, yesterday, amounted to $1,025. The relief fund amounts to nearly $7,000. No more bodies were found in the ruins today. A systematic search was made in the debris and the river was dragged again today, with the result that a number of bones were found. The Lowell police were withdrawn from the scene of the disaster this noon and the militia will be relieved this afternoon.

NO ACTION MAY BE TAKEN.

Ministers at Pekin Divided Over Arresting Chinese Reform Editor.

PEKIN, Aug. 3.—The question has arisen among the foreign ministers as to whether they have jurisdiction at Shanghai in the case of the editor and staff of the Chinese reform newspaper Supao, published in that city, against whom warrants of arrest have been issued by the Taotai, on the charge of publishing seditious matter. The Russian, French and American ministers are in favor of surrendering the reformers, while it is understood that the British minister is opposed to taking this step, and is awaiting instructions from London. This conflict of opinion may result in no action being taken.

MARQUIS ITO ELEVATED.

Japanese Domestic Crisis a Precaution Against Imminent War.

TOKIO, July 18, via Victoria, British Columbia, Aug. 3.—The way of Marquis Ito, who has been made president of the privy council, is cleared for his ascendancy in the national council. Count Matsukata and Marquis Yamagata have been made privy councillors. The appointments, which were impressively conferred by the Mikado, were unexpected by the two latter, as well as by the Japanese public.

The importance of the recent cabinet changes lies in the elevation of Marquis Ito to a position where he will be removed from the disabling odium of party management and be able at any time to take the reins.

The so-called "domestic crisis," made to seem like a ministerial squabble, is believed to be a carefully arranged precaution against imminent war. Telegrams published in the Japanese papers within the last few days from north China show the situation to be threatening.

Decision Whether or Not American Sugar is Aided by Bounties.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—In the House of Commons today, replying to Mr. Lough (Liberal), who asked whether communications had passed the governments of the United States and Great Britain relative to the possibility of the prohibition of American bounty aided sugar, if the sugar convention bill passed, Viscount Cranborn, foreign under secretary, said that the decision whether the sugar is aided by bounties lies entirely with the commission dealing with the subject. In the absence of such finding there is no call for any action on the part of the British government.

TWO MORE BALLOTS WITHOUT RESULT.

Throngs in Rome Watching for the Smoke.

Provisions for the Cardinals Carefully Inspected.

ROME, Aug. 2.—The Roman populace again assembled twice today in the piazza di San Pietro to watch the "Sfumata" issue from the Sistine Chapel, showing that no Pope had been elected.

The impenetrable seclusion which shrouds those engaged in determining who shall be at the head of the Roman Catholic Church heightens the feverish curiosity of those who await their decision. Princes, princesses, archbishops, bishops, monsignors, priests, well-to-do business men; in short, people from every walk in life talk of nothing but La Sfumata (the smoke from the burning ballots). Both this morning and this evening this was the bedestone which drew tens of thousands to the square of St. Peter's. There for hours, with strained eyes and cramed necks, they waited to see a tiny stream of smoke, so insignificant that it was almost impossible to realize that a great issue was involved in its fleeting appearance.

After the fruitless morning ballot, a belief spread that a new pontiff would surely be elected this evening. All roads during the afternoon led to the Vatican. Vehicles of every description rattled into the piazza of St. Peter's. The regular Sunday leisure was forgotten in the anxiety to see the new occupant of the Holy See. The streets converging at the piazza became black with the thousands who entered the square like the ceaseless flow of an incoming tide.

From the barracks came large reenforcements of troops who marched across the piazza and lined up at the foot of the steps of the Basilica, leaving only small spaces between the companies in order to prevent a sudden rush to get inside St. Peter's to witness the new Pope give his blessing to the Catholic world. A strong force of cavalry was picketed nearby in case of riot, and over 2,000 soldiers were posted in the square. But the troops made only an insignificant, thin, blue line compared with the vast multitude around them.

By 6 o'clock it was estimated that 50,000 people occupied the vast amphitheatre. From the steps of the Basilica, which were black with those standing or sitting, across to the opposite side of the square, there stretched, far as the eye could see, an undulating sea of humanity with every face riveted on the Sistine Chapel waiting for the smoke of the ballots. Almost encircling this great audience rose the stately pillars of the colonnade, beneath which many rested and waited.

Nearby hundreds of cabs were drawn up, their occupants eagerly gazing through glasses at the little smokestack of the chapel. Stretching away for over a quarter of a mile, a distance from which it would have been absolutely impossible to see the smoke, were other thousands waiting to know the result. The rays of the setting sun glancing from the dome of St. Peter's lit up the housetops at the opposite end of the square, and these also were crowded with anxious watchers.

Among the vast throng in the square itself were many German students whose scarlet cassacks formed vivid patches of color. When the hour of 6 struck, a tremor of expectancy ran through the multitude, because, according to yesterday's program, the burning of the ballots or the announcement of an election would come within a few minutes. When the quarter hour sounded, the nervousness increased, and a large number of officials of the Vatican, not engaged in the conclave, emerged to watch the concourse.

As the hand of the clock on St. Peter's approached the half hour, a rumor that a selection had been made developed in the minds of many into a certainty, and each one momentarily expected some favored cardinal to be announced as the new pontiff. The crowd might almost have been one in some American city, awaiting the result of a presidential election, but with this striking difference, that no sign had come as to how the vote had been going at the polls.

Another quarter of an hour passed and the anxiety grew more intense. Not a breath of air relieved the sultry heat of the evening, and scarcely a sound came from the vast multitude. Hundreds gathered below the window from which the new pontiff is to bestow his first blessing. Suddenly, exactly at 6:40 p. m., a sharp cry arose, "Ecco, Ecco." Instantly the cry was taken up by 50,000 throats, and grew and grew until the immense piazza fairly roared with "Ecco, Ecco," "La Sfumata."

Then the silence fell like a spell, while the thousands watched from the tin smokestack of the Sistine Chapel a tiny stream of light gray smoke curl lazily downward. With no wind to carry it away, the smoke hung heavily in the hot air and then gradually disappeared. For a moment the crowd believed that the signal meant an election, for there is a tradition that the cardinals are allowed to send up a little smoke as a notification of an election, and much smoke in the case of a disagreement. Any such hopes, however, were almost immediately dissipated, when a cloud of very thick smoke emerged and continued for five minutes.

With many ejaculations of disappointment the populace watched the last trace of the ballots disappear and then dispersed, although it was a long time before the square of the Basilica resumed its normal quiet appearance.

Tonight's failure to achieve an election was a great disappointment to Rome and it is doubtful whether such an immense crowd will again assemble, unless the conclave should continue until another Sunday. The mute signal showing that the morning ballot had been fruitless was seen at 11:20 a. m. by many thousands also, but the watchers in the morning, owing to the intense heat of the sun, were compelled to shelter themselves behind the colonnade.

During the day the Austrian and French ambassadors called at the Vatican and were received by Prince Chigi, marshal of the conclave. Cardinals Cretoni and Vazary continue to receive their meals from the outside. The other cardinals who are indisposed are reported to be slightly better.

There are thousands of rumors and unverified statements afloat as to what happened in the conclave today, but the only thing which seems to be reliably known is that the entire sacred college assisted at mass, which was conducted by Father Palmieri, their confessor, and that the Veni Creator was sung.

A great mass of provisions was introduced into the conclave today through the wicket gate. Three hundred chickens went in, together with 500 newly laid eggs, a quantity of ice, many litres of milk, baskets of salads, crates of fruit, etc. All this enormous quantity of provisions was thoroughly examined before being allowed to pass through the wicket. Forty of the chickens were cut open to see that they did not contain contraband matter and the remainder of the food was also closely scrutinized, but nothing being found, everything in the shape of provisions was introduced.

Letters and telegrams for the cardinals were sent in to the camerlengo, who does as he thinks best about delivering them. Some of the Catholic newspapers also were sent in, but no non-clerical ones.

The number of telegrams for Cardinals Herrero y Espinosa and Langenieux, who are ill, was so great that they made a large packet. The Spanish students, who are particularly anxious about the condition of Cardinal Herrero, asked Dr. Lapponi, through the wicket, how he was and the doctor replied that he was a little better, but still confined to his bed and that the condition of Cardinal Cretoni was unchanged. It is understood that the latter did not wish to participate in the conclave, but was almost forced to do so. He is now filled with doubts as to whether he should give a vote, being afflicted with a sort of mania that he is unworthy to interpret the divine will by casting his vote for any one.

Cardinal Gotti, as far as known, is the only one of the cardinals who has not made some complaint about his cell. Being a monk, he would consider demands for comfort against his ideas of austerity. To a member of the Noble Guard, who wished him success, Cardinal Gotti merely replied: "Thank you, but I shall not be made Pope."

Prince Chigi, the marshal of the conclave, is rather disconcerted because he has no electrical contrivance by which he can be notified from within the conclave the moment a new Pope is elected. He communicated with Mgr. Merry del Val on the subject, and the latter informed him that measures would be taken to notify the marshal instantly when a decision was reached.

Several attempts to establish communication with the conclave have been discovered in time, and there have been some suspicious lights waving in the cells of several of the cardinals which were interpreted as signals. These were immediately reported to the camerlengo by the marshal, and extra precautions were provided to prevent a repetition of the occurrence. Conventional signs for communication, codes, etc., all have failed up to now.

The opinion as generally expressed is that a determined conflict is progressing among the prominent cardinals, and, in view of the impossibility of either leading "papabili" obtaining a majority the conclave is repeating its ballots, with a view to the selection of a "neutral" Pope.

In the meantime, numerous despatches of congratulations have arrived at the Vatican for the leading "papabili," addressed to "His Holiness Pope Gotti," "His Holiness Pope Rampolla," and so on. These messages have been sent into the conclave through the turning boxes.

Among those members of the Vatican world who have remained outside the conclave the opinion prevails that the choice lies between Cardinal Rampolla and Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli, and that the conclave may last several days longer.

You feel that a man—at times, perhaps, a boy—is saying what he means. Frequently, as in his speech at the St. Louis exposition, he says it well, with dignity, and with authority. In none of his speeches did he utter a word than can be used to his political injury. It pays to be straightforward; and Mr. Roosevelt's method is really more sensible and effective than the ordinary politician's continual gingerly balancing on wires and tiptoeing on egg-shells.

STARTS FOR STONINGTON.

Rhode Island Yacht Club Assembles a Large Fleet for the Annual Cruise.

The Rhode Island Yacht Club assembled in Newport harbor last evening for its annual cruise, and this morning made an early start for Stonington. Commodore Frank F. Olney's schooner Esperanza arrived here at 4:30 o'clock and others dropped anchor during the afternoon, until at sunset there were 30 boats of the club in the harbor. A meeting of the captains was held on the flagship at 7:30 o'clock, when the following yachts and owners reported:

Schooner Esperanza, Commodore F. F. Olney.

Cats, class 1—Alice, W. E. Keach; Onaway, Benjamin W. Constock; Mildem, George E. Darling.

Yawls, under 40 feet, class 2—Wemalia, John Harney; Rohnee, L. A. Budlong; Rana, Tattersall and Nichols; Kris, George L. Robinson; Yebis, Dr. A. M. Potter; Wanderer, J. D. Maxson; Woronoco, Cutler Lallin.

Sloops, under 40 feet, class 3—Satellite, W. H. Thurber; Dazzler, Charles D. Reynolds; Frey, G. W. Brownell; Petrel, A. E. Johnson; Emmarra, E. K. Hill; Jocelyn, A. A. Green; Lydia, C. E. L. Clark; Aurora, C. B. Brownell.

Yawls, 40 feet and over, class 4—Katherina, A. Homer Skinner; Arela, Rear Commodore F. J. Rogers.

Sloops, 40 feet and over, class 5—Ruhia, Vice Commodore W. P. Church; Cornelia, R. W. Comstock; Daffodil, William Halkyard; Millie, W. S. Kelly; Seven, H. E. Kimball, D. W. Reeves; Lady Mary, William Aldrich.

Launches, class 6—Salmets, E. A. Robinson; Golden Rod, C. B. Laugmaid; Lotus Scott, C. Burlingame; Lotus, W. O. Todd.

Others arrived in season to start this morning and several will join the fleet at Stonington or Shelter Island, including former Commodore A. E. Austin's steamer Corsanto, steamers Azulah, Felix R. Wendelschaefer; Senator, Arthur W. Dennis, and Aida, L. H. Tillinghast, and former Commodore John M. Richmond's schooner Valmore.

At the meeting the commodore suggested Stonington as the port for the first day's run, with the start to be made at 6 o'clock this morning, and this was adopted by the captains and the general orders for the day were given out. After a social half-hour the captains returned to their several vessels.

The start this morning was made soon after 5 o'clock, from a line drawn between the flagship and the dolphin at the south end of Goat Island. The run will be 32 miles, the finish being at North Stonington harbor.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]

The funeral of the late Mrs. Abraham Coggeshall took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Bailey, on West Main road, Saturday afternoon. Rev. A. W. Kingsley officiated and Rev. Edward Hallett Macy read a poem, "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep." A trio consisting of Mrs. Charles Grinnell, Mrs. Warren Sherman and Rev. E. H. Macy sang, "In the Secret of His Presence." Rev. A. W. Kingsley assisted the singers in the last hymn, "Nearer, My God, To Thee." There was a large attendance. The interment was in the Island cemetery at Newport. Mrs. Coggeshall leaves one daughter, Mrs. Kate Bailey, and two grandsons, Messrs. Percival and A. Howard Bailey.

Miss Orril Peabody, who has been visiting Miss Mary E. Manchester, returned home last evening.

Mr. Chester A. Sherman, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sherman, has returned to Providence.

Mr. Alvin Simmons has fully recovered from the injuries received from the kick of a horse last week.

Rev. Allen Jacobs left today for a month's vacation, which will be spent in Connecticut and other places. During his absence his place will be supplied by Rev. John Cornell.

Mr. William Cundall of New Bedford was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Rawson of Newport visited in Middletown last week.

The Paradise Athletic Club will hold a business meeting at the gymnasium rooms Wednesday evening.

Mr. C. Lefroy Grinnell spent yesterday in Fall River.

The annual excursion of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church will take place Wednesday of next week, to Roger Williams Park, Providence.

The Pedo cottage at the Middletown station was occupied for the last two weeks of July by a party of 14 teachers, some from South Dakota and some from Iowa. A Mr. McClellan, superintendent of schools at Sioux Falls, had the party in charge, which was chaperoned by his sister, Miss McClellan. All were much impressed with their first visit to the seashore. They also enjoyed much the historic places of interest in Newport and on the island. During their stay they were entertained by Mrs. Julia Ward Howe at her home on Union street, Portsmouth.

Miss Phoebe Coggeshall was guest of Miss Alice Higbee in Newport last week.

Misses Helen and Sadie Ward, with friends from Newport, went this morning for a week's outing at the Warren Almy cottage on the East shore, Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anthony of Providence were in town yesterday and attended the Methodist Episcopal Church, where they were formerly active workers.

Miss Mabel Ward of Newport was guest of Miss Louise Barker yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Peckham and Mr. and Mrs. Rostcom S. Peckham visited in Jamestown yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wyatt and child are visiting Mr. Wyatt's grandfather, Mr. James Wyatt.

Mr. James Jenkins of Providence is visiting Mr. Frank E. Lewis.

The Paradise Cycle Club will meet with Miss Mae Peckham and Christopher Peckham tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grundy of Providence were guests of Mrs. Grundy's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Chase, Sunday.

Mrs. George Newton, with her children, is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Congdon.

The new barn of Mr. A. A. Anthony is raised and boarded to the rafters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Overton Peckham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manchester in Portsmouth yesterday.

Mr. Sidney Johnson has not sold his property on Aquidneck avenue.

Mrs. Thomas J. Sherman has returned from Prudence, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Ray, and family. Mrs. Jesse LeValley has been guest of Mrs. Sherman since her return.

TIVERTON.

At the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wilcox of Tiverton Four Corners, Miss Ethel S. Wilcox was married Friday evening to Mr. Irving Allen Crandall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Crandall of Crandall road. At 8 o'clock, to the strains of the Lohengrin March, played by Miss Lottie Manchester, the bridal party took their places under a floral arch of ferns and white sweet peas, banked with asparagus ferns, and in the presence of nearly 100 guests Rev. James H. Dickson, pastor of the Free Baptist Church, performed the wedding ceremony, using the double ring service.

The bride was attired in white Persian lawn and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. George W. Barnett, who also wore white Persian lawn and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Mr. George W. Barnett was best man. At the close of the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Manchester, during which time Mr. and Mrs. Crandall received congratulations. This was followed by a collation.

The room in which the ceremony took place was transformed into a garden of ferns and sweet peas, its beauty enhanced by the presence of a bevy of pretty girls. The wedding remembrances were numerous and beautiful, cut glass, silver and bric-a-brac predominating. Guests were present from Newport, New Bedford, Providence, Fall River, Westport, Little Compton and Stone Bridge, Tiverton.

Mr. Robert Wilson and family, who have been occupying the Hall cottage on Barker Heights, have returned to Fall River.

Mrs. John C. Seabury of Newport is guest of Frederick Wilcox and family.

IS NEWPORT GOING OUT OF STYLE?

[Harper's Weekly.]

A lady of high fashion has offered her Newport house for sale; another is said to have serious thought of doing the like, and observers are invited to infer that the attractions of contemporary life at Newport are waning. It is a good island for persons who like it, and doubtless plenty of people always will like it, but there are other ways than the Newport way for rich people to live, which, with the growth of intelligence, and with practice in the disbursement of large incomes, have grown in favor, perhaps, at Newport's cost. So long as Newport is the very pinnacle of fashion, it will attract not only such people of fashion as like to be fashionable in summer, but also a considerable company of aspirers, emulators, philosophical observers, parasites and hangers-on. High fashion, doing its prescribed stunts, is rather a delirious spectacle, and worth looking at from many points of view, but any lessening of its prestige impairs its spectacular value, and diminishes its following. Once the suspicion gets about that high fashion has flitted from its pinnacle, straightway the aspirers and emulators, noting the direction it has taken, wag their pinions in pursuit, and the philosophical observer turns his attention to other types. However, it will take more than two or 20 departures to impair the ascendency of Newport. The vested interests of various opulent families there are highly important, and doubtless many of the cottagers have sentimental associations with their summer homes which are strong enough to defy whim. It won't cease to be fashionable, nor see its scandals set forth in less than the biggest headline type, for many a long day yet, if ever. But if it should go out of style—with all the gallery empty, and a little grass in the streets, and meats and groceries cheap, and rents low, and society God-fearing again, what a charming summer place it would be!

A MERRY-GO-ROUND.

[Tudor Jenks, in the Century.]

G. Whillikins was a writer bold
Who never lost a chance;
While good at many sorts of work,
His best hold was Romance.
He wrote a lively, stirring thing,
A tale of love and youth,
With a dashing maid and a clashing blade,
But never a word of truth.
"It's very good," wrote the publishers, "but the public taste at present is for character-study."

G. Whillikins then hied him home
To make another start.
He studied up psychology:
He took men's souls apart:
He learned the naive, the morbid,
The crazy, quaint and queer.
And wrote a book without a plot.
[Note: Time elapsed—one year.]
"Why didn't we see this before?" the publishers asked. "Political Economy is what's selling just now."

Once more G. Whillikins set out.
With economic lore
He soaked his very being full—
It oozed from every pore.
He proved all poverty a crime,
And chose a "workingman"
For hero, one who ran a strike
Upon a novel plan.
"Excellent," was the publishers' verdict, "but not timely. We're doing the homely agricultural now."

G. Whillikins did some thinking,
And thought this time he'd wait
Until the wheel had made its turn,
Instead of chasing Fate.
"I'll bide my time," said Whillikins,
"Until Romance comes round."
But when the cycle reached Romance,
It found him underground,
But his widow was wide awake, and drew royalties on some fifty thousand copies.

A Cure for Asthma

The worst cases of Asthma in the world succumb readily to the one great cure that never fails. Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann's Asthma Cure almost performs miracles.

Mr. R. M. Spencer, 2380 Vermont avenue, Toledo, O., says: "Asthma has been growing on me for 3 years, until last summer the attacks became so severe that many nights I spent half the time gasping for breath. Doctors seemed to give no relief whatever, and I felt there was no hope for me, when a drug clerk recommended your Asthma Cure. Its effect is truly magical and gives complete relief in from 2 to 5 minutes."

Sold by all druggists at 50c and $1.00. Send 2c stamp to Dr. R. Schiffmann, Box 893, St. Paul, Minn., for a free sample package.

Newport, R. I.

Dear Sirs: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devoe, we save you 15 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa., always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devoe took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.

All paint, true paint, and full-measure, on one side; bart paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect? Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

THE HOSPITAL AND ITS WORK.

The opening of the new Vanderbilt Memorial ward at the Newport Hospital calls attention anew to the excellent equipment of that institution, and the beneficent work which it is doing in and for the community. Newport has a hospital second to none in this part of the country in its completeness for general work, and were it not that the institution, large as it is, is none too large for the city and its suburban neighbors it is not at all improbable that it would have an extensive out-of-town patronage. This latest addition to the plant, the Vanderbilt ward, is one that has long been needed. The various branches of work for which it will provide, while carried on before, have been conducted under such cramped conditions that full benefit could not be derived by the public. This gift, while made nominally to the hospital, is in reality a donation to the citizens of Newport, for whose use and comfort it is planned, and who are thus placed under special obligations to the generous benefactor.

Though a private corporation, receiving no public money for its support, the hospital is doing a far greater charity work than any one not directly connected with it can possibly know. It is the purpose of the management to have all patients pay what they can afford, but none are denied its benefits because of lack of means, and the hospital has no stronger friends than those who have been compelled through sickness to have dealings with it, be they rich or poor. While the institution has often been made the object of criticism and attack it has not been from those familiar with its workings, but generally from those who boast that they have never been inside its walls. The great body of the people of Newport, however, know something of its work and appreciate in some degree its value in the community.

CONCILIATION FAILING IN THE COAL REGIONS.

It should create no surprise to learn that the conciliation board in the anthracite region is making slow progress in adjusting the demands of the miners on one side and the operators on the other. It was the theory of the commission in proposing the creation of this board, and it is a widely prevalent notion, that both sides to a labor dispute want only what is "fair"—both sides say so—and that a board representing both sides equally, and without an umpire to give a casting vote, ought to be able to determine what is "fair," and having announced the result both sides will cheerfully accept it. There is little foundation for this idea. There is not often such an attitude as this between men with diverse interests who get into a controversy. What is "fair"? How can any conciliation board determine what wages A should pay to B, and how long B should work, except to see what other men pay and how long other men work, and assume that the prevailing rates are "fair." But the prevailing rates are the very things that the workmen generally, and the employes sometimes, complain of and try to have changed.

The courts are full of controversies between business men, each of whom believes he is right, each of whom is determined to get "all that is coming to him," and who go to the courts instead of to arbitration because one of the parties is satisfied with things as they are and refuses to put his possessions, and what he believes are his rights, in jeopardy. But the other man can compel him to come into court and have a decision rendered and enforced. But compulsory arbitration is impracticable because there is no set of rules and precedents with which the conduct of the parties is to be compared. The rights that the courts administer are defined by law and custom. But the rights that employers and employes talk about are no more defined than the right between a buyer and a seller, each of whom has a right to make the best terms he can for himself, while neither of them has a right which he can get the state to affirm and enforce against the other, except the right to be protected from fraud and imposture.

There is no fixed definition of what is fair in a labor dispute; no possibility of reaching such a definition. The miners are trying to get the best terms possible, and the operators are trying the same thing, and the conciliation board divides evenly, and there may yet be strikes or lock-outs. There are already intimations of a strike from some of the labor representatives.

SAND HEAPS AS PLAYGROUNDS.

Summer playgrounds have come to be a common and permanent institution in many cities, and the testimony is that they do a vast amount of good among children who have no other opportunities for play in the open air except in the busy streets where dangers lurk. But even these simple agencies for the care and instruction of the little ones during the hot weather period entail some cost to the city or to individuals or organizations that are interested in them, and the plan is now advocated of having a sand heap in every street in some safe place where children can play without danger and without expense to any one. The advocates of this plan assert that all that children need for play is a place to dig and that a sand heap would make the street urchins as happy as if they were on the beach at a high-priced summer resort. The sand heap would require little care, and the children would not necessarily have to be looked after by any one, the idea being to simply place the sand pile where it can be used by those who have no other means of play and leave them to enjoy it at their own pleasure.

Of course the playgrounds themselves are established and maintained upon a more elaborate basis, games of various sorts being provided for the little ones and teachers being employed to keep the children amused, to direct their sport and to give them at the same time some instruction disguised under the form of play. The value of these institutions has been fully demonstrated in many places, the children being kept happy and healthy during the warm weather period while at the same time absorbing unconsciously a considerable amount of valuable information. The street sand heap is a much simpler expression of the same idea of keeping neglected children healthy and happy in hot weather by providing this means of enjoyment and inexpensive form of play. That the little ones will take kindly to it any one who has noticed the fondness of children for the sand on the bathing beach will readily believe, and that it will prove a great source of pleasure is proven by the same observation.

It might be a good idea and would cost little if every city would deposit loads of sand in a number of places about the streets and watch the results. It is safe to say that the street sand heap scheme would soon win many advocates and be generally adopted in cities where opportunities for play in safety are few for the poorer children.

A POLITICAL MACHINE AT WORK.

Recently a judge died in Philadelphia, and under the rules of the Republican organization, and the usual practice of political parties everywhere, a convention should have been called to nominate a candidate. But instead of calling a convention the Republican city committee made a nomination. It is not likely that any one will dispute the regularity of the proceeding, but it shows the complete usurpation of the rights of the people by the political bosses. They would name their own man in any case, and it saves some trouble to do it directly instead of doing it through the agency of the delegates to a convention. But if political organizations were universally as powerful as the Republican organization is in Pennsylvania and the cities of that state there would be no nominating conventions, and probably elections would cease to be held where one party was in a very large majority; where the two parties were pretty evenly balanced their rivalry might save to the voters the right of expressing their preference for one ticket or the other, which is all the political prerogative of the great majority of voters now.

More recently a Congressman died in Philadelphia. It is announced that no convention will be held to nominate a successor. The candidate will be selected by the four representatives in the city councils of the four wards that compose the Congressional district. As a nomination is equivalent to an election there will be no campaign expenses, the omission of a convention will reduce expenses to almost nothing, and the cost of the special election will be met by the state. Therefore it might be supposed that money would cut no figure in this election. On the contrary, it is reported that it will take an unusually large sum of money to secure this vacant Congressional seat. The man who desires the nomination will have to put up at least $50,000, and there are intimations that a good deal more is expected, and the nomination may bring $100,000. Of course the money will be paid ostensibly as a campaign contribution, but there will be no campaign expenses. Who will get the money? Four men in the city councils will determine who shall get the nomination.

Last winter all the city employes, including even school teachers, were assessed for the expense of the municipal campaign. Yet there were no speeches, no mass meetings, no brass bands, no flags and decorations, almost no printing. Political committees make no reports of the use they make of the moneys they get.

More than 5,000,000,000 pounds of sugar valued at over $100,000,000 was brought into the United States in the year ended June 30, a larger importation than for any preceding year in the history of the country. We certainly ought to have been sweetened by this influx.

Slow but sure is what Admiral O'Neill thinks a battleship should be. But there may be occasions when a slow vessel will not be sure to arrive on the scene of action. The Oregon would not have been at the battle of Santiago if she had not been fast.

The proceedings of the "secret" conclave of the cardinals at Rome are rather minutely described in the newspapers. Is there a leak somewhere?

The Massachusetts cities and towns had such a good time in their Old Home week that they are already talking about similar annual celebrations.

Rampolla is reported to be the leading candidate in the balloting for Pope, in spite of the fact that he occupies cell 13.

The revolution in Cuba among unpaid veterans turns out to be an affair of four men and the writer of the story.

All eyes turn toward Rome and the rising smoke.

WONDERS OF MODERN FARMING MACHINERY.

[W. B. Thornton, in World's Work.]

All the great crops are now planted and all except cotton are gathered by machinery. Let us follow a crop throughout a season's work and see the changes that have come in its treatment. The plowman no longer trudges slowly and wearily back and forth across his field. He rides a sulky plow with a spring seat. There are special plows for every need: turf plows, stubble plows, subsoil plows, plows for heavy work, plows for light work and gang plows turning three furrows at once. So simple are many of them that a boy may drive one. Plowing by steam is not commonly practiced in the middle West, but out on the great wheat ranches of the Pacific coast it is common. On the tule lands of California a 60-horse-power traction engine drawing 21 feet of disk plows will break the ground to a depth of 10 inches at the rate of 45 to 60 acres a day. With mold-board plows designed especially for this work, a strip 28 feet wide can be broken. This means that a man and pair of horses with a single mold-board plow would have to cross a field 28 times to do the same work that the traction engine does by one trip of its plows. A farmer of the central West who uses a small traction engine and a gang of four 14-inch plows says that it costs him from 50 to 62 cents per acre to break his ground. He considers steam economical.

The land made ready for the reception of the seed, machinery still does the work that muscle used to do. The sower goes forth to sow, but not as he once did, dropping his seed into the soil, trudging backward and forward from dawn till twilight. His grass or his grain is broadcasted or drilled in with mechanical evenness, and the machine automatically registers the acreage sown. In like manner his corn is drilled in, listed or planted in hills, his potatoes are planted, and even his cabbage, his cauliflower and his tobacco plants from the seed-beds are set out by machinery, and the work is done better than it could possibly be by hand—this, besides the saving of time and toil. Even in the vegetable garden, seeders for all kinds of seeds are now extensively used. The machines are pushed in front of the operator, and they automatically drop and cover the seeds at the desired distances and depth and at the same time mark off the next row.

News and Notes of Interest and Importance from All Parts of the State.

It was an exceedingly narrow escape that Albert Fletcher, one of the family of Fletcher steeplejacks, had recently while at work preparing to paint a 100-foot iron smokestack at the Riverside Mill in Olneyville. Fletcher had ascended the chimney by his usual method, employing a boatswain's chair, and had reached a point about 60 feet from the ground, when he thought he saw signs of the stack's weakening. The tall iron stack seemed to be preparing to buckle below him, his weight on that side and the force of the wind apparently combining to weaken the chimney. Instead of proceeding at once to lower himself as quickly as possible, he began carefully to work around toward the opposite side of the stack. Having safely worked around to the other side Fletcher then started to lower himself carefully and slowly to the ground. When he had gone some distance downward, as his foot was bearing heavily against the stack, suddenly the iron sheathing gave way and the steeplejack's foot went into a hole that opened just then at that spot. Without making the hole any larger than he could help, Mr. Fletcher broke away small pieces of the chimney's jacket and extracted his foot. Then he finished his descent in safety and left the weakened chimney stack still standing.

An accident occurred at Warren Saturday evening in which a six-year-old child, Alice Emond, was injured by two wheels of the automobile of Alderman Pierce of Providence passing over her chest. It is claimed by onlookers that the motor carriage was proceeding slowly, when the child backed off the sidewalk and was knocked down. Mr. Pierce stopped the carriage immediately. The child was taken to the office of Dr. Marcus H. Merchant, where an examination was made and the child was treated for fractures of two ribs, abrasions on one knee and an elbow, and a contusion on the face near the left eye.

When Joseph Le Blanc was arraigned before Clerk Rueckert in the Sixth district court in Providence Saturday on a charge of purposely setting a fire at the American Locomotive Works he said it was "done for devilment." He is only 17 years of age and evidently did not realize the seriousness of the offence when he set the fire. He was arrested at his home at the corner of Chalkstone avenue and Felix street and brought in for arraignment. The police of the Sixth District said that Le Blanc worked nights at the Locomotive Works and early in the evening he broke up some wood in the yard. Taking this wood he placed it upon a sort of a platform of planks resting on the roof beams in the forge shop, and set fire to it. The fire was discovered by the night watchman. Le Blanc was found probably guilty and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $2,000.

The two victims of the automobile accident on Reservoir avenue, Providence, July 16, are on the road to complete recovery, and one of them, Thomas H. Besse, had been released from the Rhode Island Hospital. His sister-in-law, Mrs. H. S. Salles of New Orleans, has not been discharged yet, and it was stated at the hospital last night that it was impossible to tell at what time she would be well enough to leave. The accident which was the cause of the injuries to these two people, which were so severe that they were almost fatal, happened on the evening of July 16, and for a number of days the lives of both Mr. Besse and Mrs. Salles were despaired of. It will be remembered that the automobile in which were Mr. Besse, Mrs. Besse, Mrs. Salles and Dr. H. A. Besse of Franklin, Mass., overturned on Reservoir avenue and all the party sustained injuries. It was reported that Mr. Besse rode away from the hospital in an automobile.

Despite the fact that two men suspected of being pickpockets were arrested by Providence detectives Saturday night and turned over to the East Providence police on complaint of having relieved a man of $42 while boarding one of the bay boats coming up from Crescent Park, the crook fraternity that seems to be watching the shore resorts closely got in more fine work yesterday, according to reports made to the police. By 7 o'clock last evening some seven or eight cases of suspected pocket-picking had been reported, the aggregate amount of money taken, aside from other valuables the pocketbooks contained, figuring up to more than $250.

Operations have been begun in Barrington toward the construction of a new car barn and rotary station for the Rhode Island Suburban Railway Company, to take the place of the old wooden power station of the company now operated to furnish power for the operation of the Suburban line in Bristol county. The plan has been contemplated for a long time and the station will be a link in the chain of rotary stations that are being constructed for the company in this state and Massachusetts. It is arranged in this way to concentrate the generation of power as far as possible under one roof and by transmission to the outlying stations where there will be rotary converters the furnishing power, it is believed, will be more satisfactory. The new building in Barrington is to be a sightly one, of brick with granite trimmings, with considerable in the way of ornamentation on the exterior. The structure is to be one and a half stories in height, 80 feet in length by 32 feet in width and to cost $13,000.

A CURIOUS FAMILY RELATIONSHIP.

The following genealogical puzzle is worthy of, say, ten minutes' careful consideration. A gentleman writes this truthful statement of his somewhat complicated family relationships: "I got acquainted with a young widow who lived with her step-daughter in the same house. I married the widow, and my father fell shortly afterwards in love with the step-daughter of my wife and married her. My wife became the mother-in-law and also the daughter-in-law of my own mother. My wife's step-daughter is my stepmother, and I am step-father of my mother-in-law. My step-mother, who is the step-daughter of my wife, has a boy; he is, naturally, my step-brother, because he is the son of my father and of my step-mother, but because he is the son of my wife's step-daughter, my wife is the grandmother of the little boy, and I am the grandfather of my step-brother. My wife has also a son; my step-mother is consequently the step-sister of my boy, and is also his grandmother, because he is the child of her step-son, and my father is the brother-in-law of my son, because he has my son's step-sister for a wife. I am the brother of my own son, who is the son of my step-mother. I am the brother-in-law of my mother, my wife is the aunt of her own son, my son is the grandson of my father, and I am my own grandfather."

ARMY AND NAVY GAMES.

Problem to be Worked Out During the Coming Manoeuvres the Most Difficult Yet.

Revised rules for the army and navy manoeuvres for 1903, prepared by Major F. E. Harrison, U. S. A., and Lieutenant Mark L. Bristow, U. S. N., have been issued in pamphlet form for the direction of the officers taking part, and show that the problem to be worked out is difficult and that the operations will be on a more extensive scale than ever before attempted. This is the problem to be solved on the Maine coast this month:

"Blues, two squadrons of battleships being located at Guantanamo and Cutebas, are covered by a superior allied fleet of Red and Black, when the political situation in the United States is suddenly strained. A strong Red fleet, consisting of vessels (including torpedo boats) sails at 6 p. m., August 23, 1903, from the port of X, heading south, with the following sealed orders: 'The Red fleet at X will proceed at once to Portland, Me., seize and hold same as a base of operations.'

"Information of the sailing of the Red fleet from X is received at Portland six hours after its departure. Time required for Red fleet to reach Portland is 54 hours.

"It will be assumed that prior to the sailing of the Red fleet from X no channels are mined or obstructed; thereafter all enterprises sanctioned by international law are permitted. It is desirable that the operations of the fleet should include all channels of approach to Portland and embrace a reconnoissance in force, an attempt to destroy mine fields, a day attack, a night attack, and if practicable the forcing of a passage. Preparations will be made to resist attacks on forts by landing parties. All forts in the artillery division of Portland (Forts William, Preble, McKinley, Scammel, Levett and fortifications on Cow Island) will be mobilized on a war basis, allowing two reliefs of the artillery men. During the period of hostilities the conditions are to approach those of war as closely as possible.

"The period of hostilities shall be from midnight, August 25, to noon, August 29. The period from midnight, August 23, to midnight, August 25, shall be known as the period of preparation. The attack will consist of ships in accordance with the following list, which is subject to revision:

"Battleships—Kearsarge, Alabama, Illinois, Massachusetts, Indiana, Texas.

"Cruisers—Olympia, Baltimore.

"Gunboats—Mayflower, Dolphin, Chesapeake, Newport, Scorpion.

"Training ships—Hartford, Essex, Monongahela.

"Unprotected cruisers—Prairie, Yankee, Topeka, Panther.

"Destroyers—Decatur and nine others, same class.

"Supply vessels and colliers—Culgoa, Caesar, Hannibal, Sterling, Lebanon, Marcellus, Leonidas, Brutus.

"Tenders and tugs—Peoria, Nina, Potomac.

"There will be required eight army and 22 navy umpires, 10 navy and 22 army observers, 6 navy and 6 army observers and navy umpires will assemble at Rockland, Me., at noon August 24; the navy observers and army umpires by 9 a. m., August 24, in Portland."

CHANGED BOATS AND CHANGED RESULTS.

The interest in the 30-footer race Saturday centered in the Raccoon and Carolina and their new skippers. Mr. Drexel has been piloting the Raccoon to last place for some time and got to complaining that he had the poorest boat in the fleet, while others told him he had the best but that she was handicapped by her handling. To prove this Mr. Pembroke Jones Saturday took the Raccoon, while Mr. Drexel had the Carolina, whose finish is usually in first place or near it. At the start Mr. Drexel proceeded to prove his case by forcing the Barbara and Raccoon off their course. They finally got away and had a tight race for first place, the Raccoon winning by the narrow margin of 18 seconds over the Barbara, with the Vaquero III third and the Carolina fourth. The Carolina was only 1 minute, 12 seconds behind the leader, so the finish was close, but Mr. Jones had proved his point; that the Raccoon can sail when properly handled.

PROBATE COURT.

At the session of the probate court this morning letters of administration on the estate of Ellen W. Castloff were granted to Henry M. Castoff, and on the estate of Mary Catherine Sherman to William B. Sherman, Jr. The will of John Corridon was proved and letters testamentary were granted to Mary A. Corridon. The administrator's first and final account with the estate of Patrick B. Burke was allowed and the balance was ordered distributed. The discharge of the guardian of Chester T. Minkler was ordered recorded. The petition for adoption of Olga Livingston was granted and her name was changed to Olga King.

Petitions for probate of the will of Charles H. Ball and for consideration of the executor's first and final account with the estate of George Lloyd were continued to August 24.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT TO THE PURITAN.

This morning steamer Puritan arrived from New York about 4 o'clock, or nearly on time, and was tied up here for repairs. During the trip up it was found that a key had become loose and temporary repairs were made and the boat slowed a trifle until she reached here, when the machinists went to work to fix the key. The steamboat train was sent here from Fall River and took the passengers, leaving just before 8 o'clock. The boat carried no Fall River freight and but little except horses for Newport. It is possible that the boat will remain here all day and the steamboat train be sent on from Fall River, instead of having her go up to that city. There was no danger and the passengers did not know that things were not proceeding as usual.

Mr. Kenneth C. Grant, organist.

WAR GAME BEGINS.

Fleet of the "Enemy" Goes to Sea, to be Followed Two Days Later by the Defense.

The war game between the fleets assembled at Bar Harbor began this morning at daylight, when the "enemy," consisting of battleships Indiana, Texas and Massachusetts and torpedo boat destroyers Lawrence and Whipple, in command of Admiral J. H. Sands, sailed to lose themselves out on the broad Atlantic. Two days later the great fleet of battleships, cruisers, scout ships, training ships and torpedo boat destroyers will leave and take their respective stations along the coast to watch for the approach of the hostile ships.

Admiral Barker, who is in command, has transferred his flag from the Illinois to the Kearsarge. The Kearsarge, Olympia and Prairie have just been equipped with the wireless telegraph system and communication has been successfully carried on between the ships.

HAT FACTORIES RESUME WORK.

South Norwalk Employes Sign New Bill of Prices for Coming Year.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Aug. 3.—The hat factories in South Norwalk, which were idle last week on account of a strike of employes, resumed operations today, the employers having signed the new bill of prices for the coming year. The men returned to work under the same conditions that existed previous to the dispute.

TO SWIM THE NIAGARA RAPIDS.

J. W. Glenister to Make the Perilous Attempt This Month, and Confident of Success.

J. W. Glenister of New York, who is well known in this city, will some time this month, probably between August 8 and August 16, attempt to swim the Niagara rapids. The exact date on which the attempt will be made has as yet not been announced, and probably will not be made public, being withheld in order to prevent police interference. Glenister is known as a swimmer of pluck, and feels confident of succeeding in his perilous attempt.

The last man who tried to swim the rapids was Captain Matthew Webb, the English swimmer, who died in the attempt. In referring to it, Glenister said: "I know that Webb lost his life in the attempt to swim the rapids, but I am confident that I can do it. I shall keep to mid-channel, where there are no rocks, and expect to accomplish the feat in from 10 to 15 minutes. The water runs 22 miles an hour at that point. Captain Webb lost his life through hugging the shore, and was thrown head first against the rocks. The channel is free from all obstructions and I rely on it to pull me through."

Glenister's only apprehension is of the suction, for he expects to be drawn down, but figures that the same force which pulls him under the surface of the water will immediately throw him up again.

Glenister swam from Narragansett Pier to Newport in 1897, and in the same month dove off the Halstead street bridge in Chicago. He is the holder of the swimming record between Providence and Crescent Park, eight miles, having made the distance in 3h. 40m. In January, 1899, he swam a half-mile from Riverside to Pomham, in a river practically filled with ice. The following year he won over 72 contestants in a swim from Hell Gate to the Long Island shore, in New York, and in 1896 won the American championship from Joe Stark. He also tried to swim the English channel from Dover to Calais, and was taken out of the water unconscious, after swimming 18 hours and having covered 33 miles.

JAMESTOWN.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]

The fourth serial race of the Conanicut Yacht Club took place Saturday over course No. 1. A whole-sail breeze was blowing from the southwest and a pretty race was the result, though there were a small number of entries. Miss Cohen sailed the Dido and received much praise for the way in which she handled the boat. The summary was as follows:

Class 1, start at 3:05.

Owner.	Name.	Finish.	Cor. Time.
Mr. Walbridge,	Vanda,	4:19:15	1:11:15
Mr. McLeod,	Caroline,	4:05:02	0:58:41

J., Rear Admiral Farquhar and Mrs. Farquhar, Miss E. Johnson of New York, Miss Francis and A. W. Francis of East Orange are registered at The Thorndike.

W. A. Woods, R. M. Pike, Jr., of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Martin of New York city, Miss Hallet of Brooklyn, N. Y., Robert Gray, New Haven, Conn., R. A. Pich, Somerville, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Darius Buffington, Somerset, Mass., Mrs. L. N. Slade, Mrs. Leonard Slade, Francis Slade, Mrs. E. Newton of Fall River, Miss H. E. Cushman of Monson, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Simmons, Charles Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Nickerson and Mrs. Skinner of Providence are registered at Maplewood.

Passengers on the 11:30 trip of steamer Conanicut were treated to an excellent view of the Constitution on her trip up the bay. The Conanicut stopped to allow the yacht to cross her bow and she passed very close, affording a fine view of the yacht, which every one appreciated.

CLOSE CONTESTS.

Play in the Mixed Doubles Handicap Tennis Series—Scratch Ladies' Doubles Arranged.

In the mixed doubles handicap lawn tennis tournament at the Casino this morning three matches were played, two in the second and one in the third round. Both matches in the second round required three sets, and the issue was in doubt to the end. Miss Nora Iselin and Marion R. Wright are in the first class and their opponents, Miss Therese Iselin and W. P. Burden, in the third, the former giving odds of 15. In the first set Mr. Wright and partner won, by the close score of 6-4, in spite of their handicap; the second went to Mr. Burden and partner at 6-2, and the third and deciding set was won by Mr. Wright and Miss Nora Iselin after an interesting contest.

Mrs. Brooks and Charles E. Sands are also in the first class, and their opponents, Miss Twombly and Willing Spencer, in the third class. In spite of the handicap Mrs. Brooks and Mr. Sands won the first set at love, the second went to Miss Twombly and Mr. Spencer, 6-3, and the third was won by Mrs. Brooks and Mr. Sands, 6-4.

Mrs. Brooks and Mr. Sands also won their match in the third or semi-final round, beating Miss Margaret Busk and Sidney J. Smith in straight sets, in which excellent tennis abounded. The summary of the morning's play is as follows:

Mixed Doubles, Second Round.

Miss Nora Iselin and Marion R. Wright beat Miss Therese Iselin and W. P. Burden, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3.

TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

Two Tool Manufactories in Athol to Close Down for Two Weeks.

ATHOL, Mass., Aug. 3.—The L. S. Starrett Tool Company and the Gay & Ward Tool Company have shut down until August 15. As it is an enforced vacation, the employes will not receive pay for the idle period. Both concerns will take inventories and make improvements. Business is expected to be dull in Athol the next two weeks, for the shutting down of the two big factories will make 400 men idle.

CONTAINS ABOUT 50,000 NAMES.

Completes a List of Revolutionary Soldiers Entitled to Pay.

HAVANA, Aug. 3.—General Maximo Gomez, chairman of the commission dealing with the matter, has just completed a list of the revolutionary soldiers entitled to pay. General Gomez says the list contains about 50,000 names. He believes the pending loan will not cover more than half the claims, and anticipates that the Cuban congress will provide for the payment of the balance in some form of due bill, payable with interest.

KNOWN AS AN ACTRESS.

Death of Mrs. Jean Margaret Davenport Lander at Lynn.

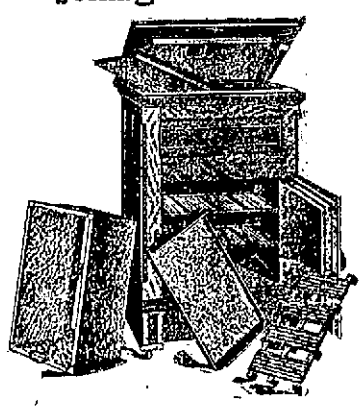

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 3.—Mrs. Jean Margaret Davenport Lander, widow of General Frederick W. Lander, whose name Post 5, Grand Army of the Republic, of Lynn, bears, known as an actress for twoscore years in this country and in Europe, died Sunday evening of cancer of the breast, aged 74 years, at her summer home on Ocean street, Lynn. The body will be taken to Washington, her former home, for funeral rites and interment. Mrs. Lander was a member of Lander Woman's Relief Corps 29, G. A. R., of Lynn.

NO PAINTERS' BREAK.

Movement for Extension of Time on the Sandy Point Farm Job Defeated and Men Not at Work.

Saturday it was reported from the painters that there would be a break in the ranks of the masters this morning and many had visions of an end of the present difficulty. Today the masters say there has been no break and that one has not been threatened. They say that when the lockout occurred the firm of J. B. F. Smith & Co. was given an extension by the masters' association, in order that the Reginald Vanderbilt job might be completed, but this extension was not used because the painters would not work under it. Now it is claimed that the painters requested last week that they be allowed to do the job and the firm had the extension of time put in action again, and consequently this morning a dozen men were to go to Sandy Point Farm to do the work which remains to be done there before the return of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt.

By this arrangement the painters were to get a little more work under the conditions which existed prior to July 6, and the masters claim that they were simply keeping an agreement with one of their number when the lockout was ordered. This was to be the only job to which this extension should apply and when this was completed the men were to be against the same proposition at this shop as at others.

This morning the men went to the cars to go to the farm, while officials from the union went to the Smith shop and asked that an agreement be signed. This was refused and then directions were sent to the cars for the men not to proceed to work.

FORTY-FIVE MEN UNDER ARREST.

Riot Between Italians and Employes of a Buffalo Elevator.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 3.—A fierce riot broke out in front of the Niagara elevator on Ohio street today, and as a result 45 Italians are under arrest and detectives are looking for more. Fortunately no one was hurt, although scores of shots were exchanged. The fight took place between employes of the Niagara elevator and Italians who are employed at the plant of the Buffalo Union Furnace Company. It is said that the riot was provoked by an employe of the Niagara elevator, who shouted an opprobious name at the Italians as they were passing along the street.

FALLING OFF IN ORDINATIONS.

Membership of Presbyterian Church Shows Steady Growth for 1903.

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 3.—Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts, stated clerk of the general assembly, has issued the figures of the Presbyterian church for 1903. The most striking feature is the falling off in the number of ordinations. The number was 290 in 1898, but there were only 185 this year or 52 fewer than the ordinations for 1902, when the number reached 236. The total membership, however, shows steady growth. It was 975,877 in 1898 and at present is 1,085,477. In finance a steady growth is shown. For home missions the amount given last year was $1,293,321, the largest in the history of the denomination. The amount for foreign missions nearly equalled the record and was $905,089.

WAR EXPECTED AT ANY TIME.

Russians Storing Provisions and Ammunition at Port Arthur.

VICTORIA, British Columbia, Aug. 3.—Officers of steamer Tacoma, which arrived from Yokohama, report that Russian agents are buying up large orders of bean cakes at the Japanese ports and storing provisions and ammunition at Port Arthur. Troops are also being hurried westward, and war is expected to occur at any time.

An idea of how serious the steamer's officers regard the situation is shown by the fact that the first inquiries they made when the pilot boarded the vessel here was if any ultimatum had been sent or war declared.

The Tacoma brought news to the effect that three Roman Catholic missionaries have been murdered by Chinese insurgents in Shan Si province. The remaining missionaries and their families, escorted by Chinese troops, arrived at Hsun Yange, whence they took passage for Hangkow.

Shiro Inou Yenouie, a Japanese astronomer, has discovered a new comet in the Cygnus constellation, not far from the Lyra, moving northward.

The Japanese telegraph companies have consented to the lowering of the telegraph charges on messages between Nagasaki and Hong Kong for the Pacific cable.

The Russian Asiatic squadron has been ordered to assemble for manoeuvres in the vicinity of Vladivostock.

The Japanese standing squadron is now engaged in summer manoeuvres off Hokosaido. The Japanese Herald says the main naval forces of Japan and Russia are "naturally" attracted to northern waters.

HAD THE SPIRIT OF PAUL.

Reason Why Leo XIII Attained His Great Influence in the World.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Rev. Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus of Chicago, preaching in the Collegiate Church here, took for his text the words of Paul in Acts "I must see Rome." He referred briefly to recent and present events in Rome, and concluding said:

"As we turn our eyes toward Rome we are inclined to think of it as Peter's Rome rather than of it as the Rome that Paul was constrained to see. As the ages passed Rome became known more and more as the seat of Peter's theology and for his methods, as when he drew the sword."

Dr. Gunsaulus described Peter's nature as "large and rich and blundering," and said that he was never safe except when acting under the direct influence of Christ. Leo XIII had attained, he said, his great influence in the world, because in him it had seen once more the spirit of Paul. He added:

"The world of today did not inquire so much as to whether in Leo XIII it held the successor of Peter, as whether in him Paul did not once more see Rome. By and by we shall see a more glorious Rome, a Rome with a better civilization, with greater light than the Rome of old, the Rome that upholds no monarch in the absolute power, a Rome without a beggar on the streets."

TO OPEN THEIR RESERVATION.

Major Laughlin Securing Signatures of Indians at Rosebud Agency.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Aug. 3.—Major James C. Laughlin, inspector of the Indian bureau at Washington, is at Rosebud agency, securing the signatures of the Indians to the amended treaty for the opening to settlement of 416,000 acres of their reservation, situated in Gregory county. He is meeting with good success, and will complete the work within a few days.

TO RUN AGITATORS OUT OF TOWN

Citizens' Alliance of Denver Issues a Call for a Mass Meeting.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 3.—The Citizens' Alliance of Denver has issued a call for a mass meeting at the Denver chamber of commerce tonight with the implied understanding that action will be taken to run out of town certain agitators who have been conspicuous in the recent labor troubles in Denver. The Printers' Union has passed resolutions declaring that the attitude of the alliance is fraught with peril to the liberty of the people and is an incentive to lawlessness. The typographical unions condemn such steps as outrageous and anarchistic in the extreme.

CHERRY STONES IN APPENDIX.

Over 100 Pits Found During Operation for Cancer of Stomach.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. Nearly 100 cherry pits were found in the appendix of a patient who was being operated upon in a Brooklyn hospital. The collection of stones had not caused appendicitis, however. Their discovery was due to an operation for cancer of the stomach. What must have been the ultimate effect, the doctors are unwilling to say. Not only the appendix but a large space of the intestines was filled with the pits. After the cancerous growth had been cut away, the surgeons took out the pits and the patient quickly recovered.

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF RED CROSS.

Great Relief Organization Proposed by Miss Clara Barton.

OXFORD, Mass., Aug. 3.—A great national relief organization, with branches in every city and town in the United States, with branch No. 1 in her native town of Oxford, is proposed by Miss Clara Barton, founder and president of the Red Cross. The plan has been formulated by Miss Barton in anticipation of the time when she must necessarily lay down the work.

Miss Barton proposes that a national fund be established to be at the ready command of a finance committee of men of national reputation when calamity breaks upon the country. She proposes that the organization be known as the National Society of Red Cross.

ROBBED BY BURGLARS.

Klondike Millionaire Attacked by Two Masked Men at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 3.—Thomas S. Lippy, a Klondike millionaire, was confronted by two masked burglars in his home on returning from church last night. He was beaten on the head with a revolver and was bound, gagged and tied to a post of the stairway. A servant girl, who had been previously surprised by the burglars and tied to the stairway, witnessed the attack. Lippy was robbed of two gold watches and $14, all the money on his person. His wounds are considered serious.

BELIEVED TO BE KIDNAPPED.

New York Police Unable to Find Any Trace of an Italian Child.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Although spurred in their efforts by a large reward, the police have not been able to find the slightest trace of the beautiful baby daughter of Gianemma Lapuna, an Italian fruit dealer, residing in West Forty-sixth street. The child, who is two and one half years of age, disappeared 12 days ago. At first it was thought she had clambered out of her cart on the sidewalk where her mother had left her a few moments, but a thorough search leads to the belief that the little one was kidnapped.

From neighbors the detectives have learned that a private carriage, in which rode a richly dressed woman, was seen about the place before the baby disappeared. It is seldom that a private conveyance is seen in that particular locality, and its appearance excited considerable note. The searchers are now fully convinced that the woman was a kidnapper. No motive for stealing the child has been found, however.

JOHN M. WISEMAN,

GRATEFUL FOR HER GOOD WILL.

King Edward Hopes a Brighter Day May Dawn Upon Ireland.

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 2.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert reached here this evening and King Edward immediately ordered the issue of the following address:

"To my Irish People: I desire on leaving Ireland to express to my Irish people how deeply I have been touched by the kindness and good-will they have shown to the Queen and myself. Our experience on previous visits had indeed prepared us for a traditional welcome of a warm-hearted race, but our expectations have been exceeded. Wherever we have gone, in town or country, tokens of loyalty and affection, proffered by every section of the community, have made an enduring impression upon our hearts.

"For a country so attractive and a people so gifted we cherish the warmest regard, and it is therefore with supreme satisfaction that I have so often during our stay heard the hope expressed that a brighter day is dawning upon Ireland. I shall eagerly await the fulfilment of this hope. Its realization will, under divine providence, depend largely upon the steady development of self-reliance and co-operation, upon better and more practical education, upon the growth of industrial and commercial enterprise and upon that increase of mutual toleration and respect which the responsibility my Irish people now enjoy in the public administration of their local affairs is well fitted to teach.

"It is my earnest prayer that these and other means of national well-being may multiply from year to year in Ireland and that the blessings of peace, contentment and prosperity may be abundantly vouchsafed to her.

"Edward, R. and I."

Copies of the address will be posted throughout Ireland tomorrow.

In replying to an address presented to their majesties at Queenstown Saturday, the King said that the Queen and himself "looked forward to renewing in future years the happy experience of the present visit." This promise of another visit to Ireland has given the greatest satisfaction throughout the country and the morning papers here all pay tributes to the inestimable service which the King has rendered the realm by his tactful conduct.

The visit is commented on as a great success which will open up a new era of prosperity for Ireland, and the address issued by the King is welcomed as a felicitous ending of a memorable journey. Even the Irish papers are enthusiastic, declaring that if only the King will pay a yearly visit, or send the Prince of Wales if he cannot come himself, Ireland's troubles will soon begin to disappear.

Before leaving Queenstown the King summoned Horace Plunkett, vice president of the department of agriculture and technical instruction of Ireland, on board the royal yacht and complimented him on his work in Ireland's behalf, conferred the honor of knighthood and presented him with a knight commandership of the Victorian order, saying: "I wish you to take it as a personal gift from myself."

The King further commanded the lord lieutenant of Ireland to announce that His Majesty had received from Lord Iveagh (Edward Cecil Guinness) $250,000, to be devoted to the Dublin hospitals, Catholic as well as Protestant, in memory of the King's visit.

FRUIT AT THE BREAKFAST TABLE

Nature Provides its own remedies which, if used judiciously, insure perfect health at all times

Aside from the pleasure of eating seasonable fruits before beginning the first meal of the day, this custom has undoubtedly arisen from the well known fact that nearly all fruit and more particularly plums and PRUNES contain natural laxative principles which act directly on the stomach and bowels.

Constipation, that dread and troublesome complaint which is undoubtedly the basic cause of nine-tenths of the dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, etc., so prevalent among our people to-day, and, which if neglected, surely leads to more complicated and serious organic diseases, can surely be prevented, and when not too far advanced, can be absolutely cured by the judicious use of the modern laxative and cathartic California Prune Wafers.

They are not a patent medicine in the ordinary sense of the word, being compounded from fresh California Prunes, which every enlightened person knows is truly nature's laxative.

A dainty little wafer, always the same, compounded in a highly concentrated form from fresh California Prunes, they are a natural dissolvent, acting on the contents of the stomach and bowels and not on the organs themselves.

They regulate the Liver and Stomach, Cleanse the System and Purify the Blood, Cure all Bowel Troubles, Biliousness, Bad Breath, Bad Blood, Wind on the Stomach, Bloated Bowels, Foul Mouth, Headache, Indigestion, Pimples and Dizziness.

Every household should have its family package of CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFERS, and at the first signs of approaching illness, or when under the weather, take a couple of wafers, and the doctor's bills will soon be much smaller than they are now.

You can eat what you please if you follow each meal with a CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFER, which quickly dissolves the most indigestible food, and helps to carry it through and out of the system in a gentle and healthful manner, without the slightest pain, griping or nausea. 100 Wafers for 25c.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3, Wall Street—The stock market opened steady, with Amalgamated Copper at 41, Atchison 62¾, Baltimore & Ohio 83, Brooklyn Transit 45½, Canadian Pacific 122⅜, Erie 2d 28⅜, Erie first preferred 66¾, Missouri Pacific 77⅜, Ontario & Western 33, Pennsylvania 123⅜, Rock Island 35¼, St. Paul 141, Union Pacific 74⅝, United States Steel 23⅝, United States Steel preferred 71⅜, Wabash 21½.

10—Dealings were very small at the opening and price changes were unimportant in the leading stocks. The market generally showed steadiness and there were sharp fractional gains in Mexican Central and Realty preferred. Amalgamated was slightly easier but the specialties were otherwise neglected.

11—Prices were inclined to yield in the early dealings Rock Island, Atchison and Union Pacific fell off fractions, but there were no offerings of consequence elsewhere. A few advances of note occurred in the inactive quarter, including 4¾ in Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie preferred and 1 to 1¼ in Realty preferred, Corn Products preferred and North American, Kansas City Southern declined 1¾ and Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie 1.

Noon—Money on call, nominally at 1½ @ 2 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5¾ @ 6 per cent. Dealings in stocks during the forenoon were the smallest of the year, and prices did not move appreciably except in a few cases. Metropolitan Securities rose 2¾, New Haven 2 and American Woolen 1½. Virginia-Carolina Chemical lost 1¾. Rubber Goods preferred a point and Realty preferred lost 1⅜ rise. Bonds were dull and irregular.

EASY FOR SOUTH ENDS.

Centredale Team Evidently a Picked Nine—Training Station and Fort Adams Win.

The Centredale base ball team was billed to play the South Ends on the old polo grounds Saturday, but the nine that appeared here did not have a single name on its list similar to those on the strong Centredale team that played the Woonsocket Gyms Friday last. An entire new nine was presented, part of which was good and part not.

It looked for some time as though the visitors were playing with the home team, but this idea was apparently a mistaken one. They had a good pitcher but he lacked support. He was rather free in throwing to bases, and as he threw hard and the baseman was not always there the throws were costly. The catcher was a good thrower, but getting hurt early in the game could not hold the swift delivery well. For a picked-up team the play was good at times, and at times it was listless. The batting was almost nothing and the visitors' only run was a gift.

For the home side Sullivan pitched hard and was well supported, not a fielding error being charged to the home team. Hogan caught a fine game and his throwing to second was good, only one base being stolen off him, while four men were caught. There was some fast work by the infielders. The score:

At the Training Station Saturday afternoon two games were played in the Army-Navy series for the Carrettson cup. The first was Navy vs. Marines, and resulted in a victory for the Navy in a closely contested game, which was called at the end of the seventh inning to allow the soldiers to play. The score:

Marines.	0	0	0	2	0	1	0— 3

Batteries—Hunt and Amato, Metzger and Mehling.

The Army game, Fort Adams vs. Fort Greble, followed and was closely contested. It was largely a pitchers' game, in which honors were quite even between Maguire and Campbell. The former had somewhat the better of it, and but for a case of stupid on the part of the Adams fielders in the fourth Greble would have been shut out. As usual the fielding of Greble was superior to that of Adams, and the latter had to get their runs one at a time. Butler again umpired acceptably. The score:

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Fort Adams.	2	1	1	0	1	0	0	0	x— 5
Fort Greble.	0	0	0	4	0	0	0	0	0— 4

BUDLONG STILL CHAMPION.

Successfully Defends His State Title Against Jones in the Bristol Tournament.

Clarence R. Budlong of Providence still retains his title of state tennis champion. Saturday afternoon on the Young Men's Christian Association courts at Bristol in a hard-fought match he prevented J. D. E. Jones of the Wannamoisett Golf Club, the winner of this year's state tournament, from depriving him of those laurels which have been his since 1898. The defeat he administered to Mr. Jones, the challenging player, operates to establish Mr. Budlong's permanent ownership of the Malcolm G. Chace trophy cup, a two-thirds interest in which the champion has held since 1899.

In the finals of the tournament doubles, Howard D. Wilcox and E. Tudor Gross defeated Daniel F. George and W. W. White, jr., and for the fourth time in succession won the state championship in doubles. They will play Clarence R. Budlong and Russell N. Dana this afternoon, in the state championship doubles challenge contest.

In the championship singles Jones played an excellent game. The match was decided in three straight sets, but in each of them Jones forced the score to deuce games and made Budlong work hard for the victory. Four sets were necessary to decide the first match in doubles. George and White won the first and Wilcox and Gross the next three. The summary of the day's play is as follows:

Championship Singles.

Clarence R. Budlong beat J. D. E. Jones, 7-5, 7-5, 8-6.

Final Doubles.

H. D. Wilcox and E. T. Gross beat D. F. George and W. W. White, jr., 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3.

In the Nahant tournament Saturday H. L. Doherty beat W. J. Clothier in singles, 6-4, 6-0, and R. F. Doherty and H. S. Mahony beat R. D. Wrenn and G. L. Wrenn, jr., 6-4, 1-6, 6-0, 6-7, 10-8.

INSPECTING THE HOSPITAL.

Hundreds of Visitors to the New and Old Wards, All Pleased With What They Saw.

The inspection of the Newport Hospital Saturday afternoon and evening proved a far greater success than even the management had hoped for. More than 1,200 persons were counted as having entered through the administration building, the way by which all had been requested to come, while many entered direct through the Vanderbilt pavilion; how many is not known, as no preparations had been made to keep tally there. In the afternoon the entire institution was open for inspection and about 600 visitors were counted then. In the evening, in consideration for the patients, the wards were closed, as too much confusion would have been detrimental to their good. Nevertheless there were the administration building and the surgical ward to be inspected in addition to the new pavilion, and these were sufficient to amaze a larger portion of the people. The evening inspection proved a particular success in the minds of the management, for many men were enabled to attend and see for themselves the completeness and magnificence of the plant. Among the guests was Mayor Boyle, who had his introduction to the institution and marveled at what he saw.

The objective point of all was of course the new Vanderbilt pavilion which was greatly admired. Every part was thrown open for full inspection and nurses were stationed about to explain so far as they could to such a great crowd the purposes of the various departments. Similar treatment was accorded in other parts of the institution, while Miss Pickett and her assistant, Mrs. Cleaves, so far as they could received the visitors as they arrived. The trustees were present and rendered much assistance in piloting guests about. Those who attended do not regret having taken the trouble to go, and many said upon their departure that they had had their eyes opened and never imagined that Newport had such a fine institution. The inspection was instructive to hundreds and has without doubt won new friends for the hospital.

SEVERELY SHOCKED.

Electrician Oxx Receives a Strong Current and Bad Burns at the Illuminating Station.

Late Saturday night there was a serious accident at the illuminating station, in which William G. Oxx, the night electrician, narrowly escaped death but is now fairly comfortable at the Newport Hospital. About 11 o'clock the streets were thrown into darkness by the trouble at the station, which started with the heating up of a transformer by being overworked or some similar cause. Mr. Oxx in attempting to remedy the trouble by making certain changes in the distribution of the current received a shock which his fellow workmen at first supposed had killed him. Some say he received only the current from one side of a big transformer of high potential, about 1,000 volts, while others think he received the whole, which is more than double. Even if he received only the former it is surprising that he lives to tell the story.

It seems that he was lying on a board, using this to insulate him, and working low on the switchboard, when in raising his head he struck a danger point, thus receiving the current and bad burns on the head. He knew his danger when he attempted the work, for he was surrounded by death-dealing apparatus, but so far as can be learned the situation was critical and something had to be done or much damage would result. According to the story left he had successfully made the changes necessary and was shocked when about to rise from his position.

Recently Chief Engineer Brannan had occasion to do some work on the switchboard because of the blowing of fuses, and had his hand so badly burned by a flash that he had to go to the hospital, but he did not receive a shock. Mr. Oxx has twice before, recently, received injuries in handling the high-tension current. It is expected that he will be able to leave the hospital in a few days, but it will probably be some time before the burns heal sufficiently to permit his return to duty.

IN MEMORIAM. ELIZABETH ECROYD.

A beautiful little light has gone out in our neighborhood. A childish presence that radiated sunshine and loving-kindness on all with whom it came in contact is withdrawn not only from one home, but from many.

Elizabeth's few short years have been spent in making friends and in showing friendliness. She possessed even more than her share of the confiding, trusting child nature. She not only believed in the good will of all toward her but she loved to show her good will to others. Her sweet and sunny face was but the reflection of her loving heart, while drew all hearts to her by the irresistible attraction of its friendly confidence. One is saddened in thinking of the loss to the world of this spirit of friendliness which is so much needed here. Elizabeth's friends were of all ages and conditions—the babe in the cradle, who seemed to recognize in a loving child the kinship of their mutual nearness to the invisible world; and the mature man and woman, whose hearts she warmed by beams from her sunny childhood.

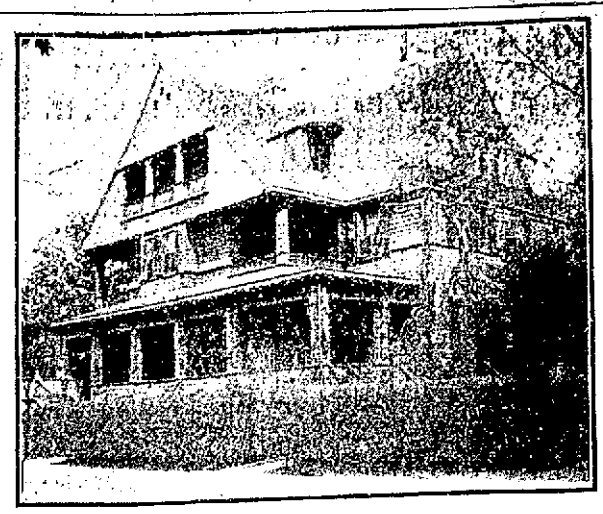

This "little friend of all the world" has gone, before her life could be clouded or marred by disappointment and disillusions, out of her sheltered, happy atmosphere into the protection and love of the everlasting life. With the same confidingness which directed her steps from day to day in the familiar streets of home she entered the dark valley, her hands clasped in those of father and mother, her face turned hopefully toward the light. Thus, accompanied by those nearest to her on earth, close to the gates of the heavenly city she had longed to see, she entered and found new friends.

"Safe from pollution, safe from sin's temptation.
She lives whom we call dead.
Day after day we think what she is doing
In those bright realms of air;
Year after year, her tender steps pursuing,
Behold her grown more fair.
"Thus do we walk with her and keep unbroken
The bond which nature gives.
Thinking that our remembrance, though unspoken,
May reach her where she lives."

YOUNGER PLAYERS WON.

Meadowbrook Freebooters Started Well at the Pier But Could Not Stay Against Bryn Mawr.

The Meadowbrook Freebooters went to Narragansett Pier Saturday and opened the Association polo tournament there by playing the Bryn Mawr team in the first match for the Narragansett cups. A large number went from here to the Pier by steam yachts and otherwise to see the games.

The Meadowbrooks did all their playing in the first period. They scored three times by fast work, and then the younger Bryn Mawr men got settled down, and after a long fight lasting over ten and a half minutes captured the last game in the first period. After that Meadowbrook secured only one goal, while Bryn Mawr piled up 12 more, the young and active Bryn Mawr players having a comparatively easy time. Mr. Devereaux rode off Mr. Norman, putting him practically out of the game, and the others had no great trouble in keeping the men from Newport under their lee. The line-up and handicaps were:

Bryn Mawr—A. J. A. Devereux 2, H.-W. Harrison 2, R. E. Strawbridge 2, Alex. Brown 3, total 10.

Meadowbrook—A. S. Burden 0, Reginald Brooks 4, George McFadden 4, George H. Norman 3, total 11.

THE INDIAN BASE BALL GAME.

Everything is in readiness for the ball game tonight on the old polo lot between the Sioux Indians and the South Ends. The large grand stand with its high canopy coverings will be placed with its back toward Dead Head Hill, and will cut off the view from this point. The diamond will be made so light that Manager Homewood states that a shadow cannot be made on the field when all lights are on.

The South Ends will be made up the same as Saturday last and will endeavor to make the visitors hustle to win. One of the features of the game will be the coaching of the Indians, who do this in their own language. They have a decided advantage over their opponents in this respect, as they can make all kinds of trick plays in this way.

AT FREEBODY PARK.

Freebody Park is preparing for a record-breaking business this week. Gaietti's dog circus and monkey hippodrome will please the children from six to 60 years of age. Gaietti is known as one of the most successful of animal trainers, and his clever troupe includes every race of simians from the smallest marmosette to the biggest blue-faced baboon. Foremost among magicians since the days of Herrmann is Imro Fox, "the comic conjurer," a cosmopolitan who has studied his art and searched for sensations in every country on the globe. A favorite is Harry LeClair, the satirical imitator of actresses of the past and present and actors of high and low degree.

A cordial welcome awaits Mrs. Carrie Doty-Spooner, who will not confine her efforts to classical music but has prepared a repertoire of popular songs and ballads. With the Delomer Sisters in musical and character changes, the Two Little Pucks in songs and dances, Edward Estus in acrobatic feats and Coogan and Bacon in roller skating comedy the program ought to have charms for all who attend.

GREAT WESTERN UNIVERSITIES.

[Frederick J. Turner, in World's Work.]

Statistics of attendance in the leading universities of the country for the present year show that while the great universities which rest upon private foundations take the lead, they are closely followed by the state universities of the Middle West. By these statistics, Harvard has 5,168 students; Columbia 5,352; Chicago, 4,296. The State University of Michigan comes next with 3,761, followed by California, 3,636; Minnesota, 3,505, and Illinois, 3,288. The privately endowed University of Cornell has 3,281, after which comes the State University of Wisconsin with 2,881. The Northwestern University, on private foundations, shows a total of 2,875. The ancient institutions of Yale and Pennsylvania are closely pressed in numbers by the young State University of Nebraska, which has 2,289. Both Indiana University and the University of Missouri surpass Princeton and Leland Stanford in numbers, and have more than double the attendance of Johns Hopkins. When it is remembered that but a few years ago ambitious students in search of the higher education flocked in great numbers from the Middle West to the eastern institutions, the significance of this showing is still more highly emphasized.

OBSTRUCTED THE FIREMEN.

Louis DeForest Declined to Move His Automobile and Was Placed Under Arrest.

Saturday afternoon's fire, which was in some clothing hung in the cellar stairway at the home of Patrick J. Keenan at 30 Lee avenue, and which amounted to but little though things were getting pretty warm when the firemen arrived, was accountable for several incidents of note. In the first place Thames street was well crowded with vehicles and the fire apparatus had many narrow escapes from collisions in winding its way through the street, though the police were active in clearing a way. Many citizens expected, when they saw the truck go down the street, that it would be necessary to report a serious accident to two boys who unknown to the firemen were hanging from the ladders on the rear end, too frightened to let go. One in some way dropped off at Mill street, but the other succeeded in hanging on until the car tracks at Franklin street were struck. There he was thrown, but happily suffered no injury.

Another feature following the alarm was the trouble into which Mr. Louis DeForest got, which necessitated his giving Officer Crane a ride to the police station in his automobile. On the ringing of the alarm the young man joined the rush for the fire in his machine. Arriving there he took a desirable observation point in Lee avenue, which Foreman Dawley of steamer 1 considered obstructive to the apparatus arriving, and so ordered him out of the way. The young man did not take kindly to being thus ordered off, and this resulted in the fireman directing the police to arrest the owner of the machine, whose name he did not learn until he reached the police station to make a formal complaint.

Mr. DeForest called at the police station yesterday morning and pleaded not guilty to a charge of interfering with the fire department. He gave bail in the sum of $100, with Chief Engineer A. J. Kirwin of the fire department as surety, for his appearance August 7.

AQUIDNECK AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state Saturday by William Carry, William Harvey and George I. Herbold, to be known under the name of the Aquidneck Amusement Company. The purpose of association as designated is to engage in buying, selling, owning and operating merry-go-rounds and other amusements, to be located at Newport. The capital stock is to be $12,000, with shares of $10 each.

ANOTHER BIG SUNDAY.

Yesterday was a big day in town and the majority of the visitors seemed to prefer riding to walking. At the beach it was the biggest day of the season, the new bathing houses proving a decided relief, while there was a crush at the restaurant which could not be attended to. The New York excursion brought about 1,000, the river steamers had large crowds, the electric cars were packed and many came by train. The bus drivers were happy and the street cars had plenty to do. Three cars were sent through from Franklin street to Island Park to relieve the pressure on the regular Fall River cars when the people were homeward bound, though the regulars were running double-headers. Those who came to town for bathing found the water excellent, though there was little surf.

STOLE A RIDE AND CAME TO GRIEF.

Three young men at the beach yesterday, while yet in bathing costume, hit upon the idea of taking a buggy which was left for a few minutes by its owner and starting for a ride. They drove up beach hill at a rapid rate and turning into a side street came to grief, stripping the spokes out of two of the wheels and cutting the horse badly. The trap belonged to Dr. Clarke, who followed the trio in a cab as soon as he heard that they had driven off, and proceeded to take care of his property when he found it. The condition of the horse is such that he will lose the use of it for a while at least.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Gives a Dinner at "Crossways"—Other Social Functions.

The first dance of the present season was given Saturday night at "Crossways" by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish. It was a dinner-dance, and for the dinner the 75 guests were seated at three tables, which were handsomely decorated by Hodgson, one with red roses, one with seasonable white flowers and the third with pink hollyhocks. The house was profusely decorated with palms and cut flowers, American Beauty roses predominating in the ball room and outdoor flowers in the hall. For the dance a number of other guests came in from other dinners, and the cotillion was led by Mr. Harry S. Lehr with Miss Marion Fish, the favors being bracelets and necklaces, brocaded picture frames and boxes and other small articles. There was one floral figure, in which the favors were pretty baskets of natural flowers. Berger's Hungarian orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. DeForest gave a large dinner party Saturday evening at the Train villa, near Bailey's beach. The table decorations by Hodgson were in white and green, with a dash of red flowers.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. J. DeForest Danielson and Mrs. T. K. Gibbs gave luncheons and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock a card party.

Saturday evening Mr. James J. Van Alen gave a dinner at "Wakehurst," in honor of Miss Chandes Pole of London, who is his guest. Dinners were also given by Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. J. V. L. Pruyn, Mrs. E. J. Berwind and Mrs. George S. Scott.

Yesterday Vice Commodore Henry Walters and Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones gave a luncheon on steam yacht Narada, 40 guests being entertained. The tables were set on the after deck, where Southern palms and Northern pines were used by Hodgson to make a pretty woodland scene. Bright colored flowers were used exclusively for the tables and cabins, gardenias being used for the individual bouquets.

Mrs. N. Devereux Clapp gave a luncheon yesterday at "Tiny Corner," entertaining 20 guests. Orchids and ferns were used for table decorations. Mrs. Ogden Goelet gave her first dinner of the season at "Ochre Court" Sunday evening, golden yellow flowers with rare foliage being artistically arranged by Hodgson for the table decorations. Dinners were also given last evening by Mr. James T. Woodward and Mr. Louis S. Brugniere. Mrs. Moses Taylor Campbell gave a dinner at the Casino grill rooms.

Miss C. Ogden Jones held her customary reception at her villa at Ochre Point this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones will give a dinner dance on board the Narada next Saturday night. The cotillion will be led by Mr. Elisha Dyer, Jr., who with Mr. Harry S. Lehr will perform a similar function at the ball to be given by Mrs. Astor, August 10.

The Lappin Store,

La Grecque Corset Fittings.

Beginning MONDAY, August 3, there will be in attendance at our corset-fitting parlor an expert corsetier, Mrs Dearth, of the 5th Ave. New York La Grecque Fitting Parlors, qualified to explain the points by which you may know a corset suits your form, how it should be put on and laced and to give you valuable ideas as to correct figure, poise and carriage. Mrs. Dearth will explain to you by a special fitting that a poor figure can be transformed into stylish, graceful outlines with perfect comfort.

Absolutely no charge is made for her services and we should be delighted to have you call, although you may not wish to purchase a La Grecque Corset.

The La Grecque is made in all styles to fit any figure.

Styles suiting the woman with the medium, slender and the lithe form.

Styles suiting the woman of average proportions, a long skirt model with that low curve to the bust, and the dip front.

Styles for the stunning Gibsonesque type, giving the long slope from the shoulder over the bust, with an extended waist line and a hip curving toward the back.

Also for the woman with the full contour, giving a figure of graceful proportions and a splendid carriage, and in fact every conceivable figure can be gracefully fitted to a La Grecque corset.

Do not fail to call and have a talk at least with the expert corsetier, Mrs. Dearth next week.
